

OUR YOUNG FOLKS.

The Drunkard.

I saw one morn' at the break of day,
A man by the grog shop door.
His eyes were sunk and his lips were parched,
I looked him o'er and o'er.
An infant son stood by his side,
And slowly whispering, said,
"Say, father, mother is sick at home, And the children cry for bread."
He arose, went to the bar again As usual was before,
And to the landlord stammering said:
"Please give me one more glass."
The host complied with his request, And gave the demanded bowl.
He a rank while wife and children starved
And ruined his poor soul.

Company A is now full and a nice start is made on Company B.

The letters still come pressing in from all directions, as though they were to last all summer.

Our young readers will soon be able to answer a great many Bible questions, those who read all the little letters.

We expect some time in the future to print a nice card with all of the names of company A on and send to each one whose name appears in the company. But we will not do this for some time yet.

DEAR EDITOR:—It has not been very long since I have written for the EVANGELIST. I thought I would write again to help fill up the Children's Column. I go to school. I cannot go now. My three sisters was sick with lung fever, but are better now. I would like to go to school. There is a great deal of sickness and deaths. One of my schoolmates died this winter. My aunt Mary Hang is sick with the quincy. My teacher's name is Mr. G.
L. Sickafoose. Don't forget leap year boys and girls. Good by, FLORENCE S. HANG.

Canton, Ohio.

DEAR EDITOR:—I thought I would write to the little readers of the EVAN-GELIST once more so they will not entirely forget me. Since I last wrote the Great Creator has put one more in our family, which is a little sister. We have not named her yet and if any one knows a nice name for her, I would be very glad to have them send it to me through the EVANGELIST. I go to school at Roann. I study Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, Geography and Spelling. In answer to Miss Etta Fisher's question, I will say that I got along very well with my garden, but not as well as might be expected owing to the dry weather. Fearing I will make my letter too long, I will quit for this time. I remain yours truly, THURMAN WAGNER.

Roann, Ind.

DEAR EDITOR:—It has not been long since I wrote you last and now I will try and write again. I am going to school now. School will be out Monday. I am taking music lessons. I was 12 years old the 11th of Feb. Papa and grandpa was to San Francisco, Cal. and just got home Sunday. They were gone nearly two months. They visited Louisville, Ky., Nashville, Tenn., Montgomery, Mobile, Ala., New Orleans Louisiana, San Antonio, Texas, El Paso, El Paso Co. where Mexico and New Mexico joins Arizona, Los Angeles, Cal. where he plucked oranges from the trees and saw flies buzzing around like they do here in the summer. Also San Francisco, Cal., remaining there several days. They went out to the ocean to the Cliff house, saw the seals swimming in the ocean, saw them climb upon the seal rocks, heard them bark—they bark course like a dog and their color was black and brown—went to the golden park which is next to the largest in the world, where he saw beautiful flowers in bloom. Then they passed on to Sacramento, and to Eldorado, Eldera-do Co., to the gold mines and brought home specimens of gold. They also visited many other cities and a number of relatives before they came home.
I will close by asking a question:

How many times did Peter deny Christ? Good by,
ESTELLA C. STERLING.
Masontown, Pa.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my first attempt to write for the Children's Column. I am 8 years old. I go to school.
My studies are Third Reader, Spelling, Arithmetic and Writing. I have two sisters and one brother. My oldest sister belongs to the Brethren church.
My papa is a minister of the Brethren church. I will close by asking a question: We read when Christ was transfigured that Moses and Elias appeared with him. Who was that Elias?
If I see this in print, I may write again.
I will send ten cents for the College.
Good by,
ETTIE REIGHARD.
Mineral Point, Pa.

DEAR EDITOR:—I have been wanting to write for your paper for a long time, but I haven't very much time. I go to school every day. Have missed but one day in six months, then I was sick. We have a good school, and a good teacher. His name is J. K. Freed.
We have speaking and singing in our school. The teacher will not excuse any one. I am nine years old. I study Reading, Spelling, Arithmetic, Writing and Geography. Papa and sister Effie was at meeting today. Bro. Bumworth is our preacher. Mamma has been sick but is getting better. I will send ten cents for my baby brother who is two years old, and ten cents for myself. I want to see his name in the paper with mine.
BLANCH AND HARLEY BURGER.
Reserve, Kan.

DEAR EDITOR:—It has been some time since I have written for the Children's Column. I am ten years old.
I went to school this winter. My teacher's name was Mrs. Holmes. My studies were Reading, Arithmetic, Spelling, Physiology and Writing. We have Sunday School every Sunday in the Brethren church at Hudson. My teacher's name is Miss Brandhorst. I wish to join Company A, so I will send ten cents for the College. I will close by asking a question: Who washed their steps with butter?
CLARNA W. WASSON.
Hudson, Iowa.

DEAR EDITOR:—I have been reading the Children's Column for some time, and I thought I would write too.
I am fifteen years old. My pa and ma belong to the Brethren church. I went to school this winter. My teacher's name was Miss Minerva Davis. My studies were Reading, Spelling, Arithmetic, Grammar and Geography. We had good sleighing here this winter.
Our summer school will commence in about a month. We have no Sunday School now. I will answer Bertha M.
Clark's question: Noah's ark was 300 cubits long. Gen. 6:15. I will close by sending ten cents for the College debt.
Good by,
MINNIE F. ULLRICK.
Udell, Iowa.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my first attempt to write for the Children's Column. I am 10 years old. I go to school in Friedens. My teacher's name is R.
E. Meyers. My sister and I go to the Primary school. I have two sisters and two brothers in the advanced school. I go to Sunday School at Friedens. I go to the Lutheran S. S.
We have three miles to our church.
We do not have S. S. in the winter in our church. I am one of the little boys to send ten cents to Company A to help to pay the debt of the College.
CHARLES H. SAYLOR.
Friedens, Pa.

DEAR EDITOR:—I thought I would write another letter for the EVANGE-LIST. I am going to school yet. Our school will be out in April. My cousin, Lue Bird is with us today. It is very disagreeable today. It rains and snows.
I love to read the Children's Column. I am going to stay with my aunt Anna Tryac this summer and ma is going to Mercersburg to work this summer.
Ella Wampler asked a question: Who hung their harps on the willows? The Jews. I will answer Zura B. Hetrick's question: It is found in Deut. 22:6.
Beattie Shank's. It is found in Psa. 5:
2. David C. Oak's. It was Immanuel.
Willie Hoffman's. Where is the middle verse in the Bible? 118 Psalms 8 verse.
Willie Furry's. What king was drove out by hornets? Hivite the Canaanite.
I will close by asking a question:
How often is the word Jehovah found in the Bible? I will ask one more.
Where is mule mentioned in the Bible?
I will close for this time. Good by,
ESSIE E. MALLOTT.

DEAR EDITOR:—I will write a few lines for the Children's Column. I like to read the letters of the boys and girls.
I am 7 years old. I went to school every day for six months. My teacher's name is Miss Rohama Knepper. I like her very much. I have four brothers and one sister, but only three brothers at home. It seems very lonesome since Eddie left. My aunt Annie lives at Falls City. I would like to hear from her little girls. I hope this will escape the waste basket, if it does I may write again. I will send ten cents for the Ashland College.
Yours truly,
LOTTIE FORNEY.
Berlin, Pa.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my first attempt to write for the Children's Column. I go to school nearly every day.
My studies are Geography, Fourth Reader, Arithmetic and Spelling. My teacher's name is Miss McHaig. I am ten years old. My father and mother belong to the Brethren church. Our preacher's name is Samuel Kiehl. We have prayer meeting at different houses on Wednesday nights. Enclosed find ten cents for the College. Good by,
CHARLES W. FOLLERTH.
Dayton, O.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my first attempt to write for the EVANGELIST. I go to school. Our school will be out the 31st of this month. Rev. Shively is our teacher. I study Reading, Writing, Geography, Arithmetic and Spelling. I like my teacher real well. I go to Sunday School every Sunday. My Sunday School teacher's name is Mrs.
Hazen. Our pastor preaches every two weeks Sunday and Sunday evening.
My ma and sister belong to the Brethren church. I will close by asking a question: What is the longest verse in the Bible?
SUDIE M. LEEDY.
West Independence, O.

DEAR EDITOR:—As I have not written for sometime, I will try to write a few lines for the Children's Column. I go to school. My teacher's name is Miss Annie Runge. She is a good teacher. I have about six weeks more of school. I am 11 years old. I will close by answering two questions: I will answer Zura B. Hetrick's question: I found eggs seven places in the Bible:
In Duet. 22:6; Job. 39:14; Isa. 10: 14 and 59:5; Jer. 17:16. I will answer Bessie Shank's question: Knives is found in Jos. 5:2, 3. Please correct all my mistakes. Yours truly,
-EDA M. SCHAPER.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my first attempt to write for the Children's Column. The Brethren have a nice church here. Bro. Swihart preaches here the first Sunday of every month. We have Sunday School every Sunday and prayer meeting every Thursday night. I wish to belong to Company A, so I will send ten cents for the College. I will close by answering Bertha M. Clark's question: How long was Noah's ark?
It was 300 cubits long. If this escapes the waste basket, I may write again.
Yours truly,
ROSALIE HOLSINGER.
Oakland, Ind.

DEAR EDITOR:—This blustery evening I will try and write a short letter for the Children's Column. I have read a great many of the children's letters and I will enclose ten cents the same, although I am no member of the church and to tell the truth, of no other one, but help all I can to build them. I gave $500 to the one they built at Maurertown one mile and a half from this city. They have a nice little church and one of the best in this section of the country. I hope they will do good work for Christ. They added ten members to the church when they dedicated it and if they had preached a while longer they would have had more to build it up, and send that pastor back to preach again for the people.
This neighborhood needs him. They have a Sunday School at this place for the children and the old people. It is something new for them. If I see this in print, I may write again. I will close by answering Cassie Clement's question. You will find it in Esther 8: 9. May Warner's question. How many children of Israel entered the Promised Land. There were two that entered. I can not give the verse. I will close by asking a question: Who climbed a tree to see Jesus and what kind of a tree was it?
I remain your friend,
CHARLES N. CRABILL.
Tom's Brook, Va.

DEAR EDITOR:—It has been some time since I have written for the Children's Column. I went to school this winter, but our school was out the 16th of March. We have one mile to Hudson.

We have a nice school house in Hudson.
It has four rooms in it but there is only two finished off for school. My teacher's name was Mr. Holmes. My oldest brother and I were in the second room and my little brother was in the first room. There were 34 scholars in the second room and 35 in the first room. We have Sunday School every Sunday. My teacher's name is Mrs.
Johnson. Our superintendent in Sunday School is Dr. Speicher. I will close by sending ten cents for Company A. and ask and answer a question: I will answer Bertha M. Clark's question: How long was Noah's ark? It is found in Gen. 6:15. Who was it that begged the body of Jesus?
VIOLA V. WASSON.
Hudson, Iowa.

DEAR EDITOR:—Enclosed please find ten cents. Place my name on the Roll of Honor Company A. I am glad to have the chance to do so.
Truly yours,
CHENEY T. WELLS.
Kenilworth, Pa.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my first attempt to write for the Children's Column. I will send ten cents for the Ashland College. Papa takes the EVANGE-LIST. We like it very well. I am 14 years old. I have three brothers and three sisters. I am going to school. My teacher's name is Miss Coon-y. My little brother sends ten cents. He is three years old today. His name is Seth M. Vistrand. Good by,
FANNIE VISTRAND.
Youngsville, Pa.

MY NORTHERN
TRAVELS
Is the title of a new book by JULIA A. WOOD.

It contains a most interesting account of her travels in the North, the places she visited, the difficulties and pleasures of the journey and the special favors of a kind Providence.

It also contains her autobiography, which adds greatly to the work, and the excellent portrait will be highly prized by her many friends.

The book contains over 160 pages, is printed on fine, heavy book paper and forms a very handsome volume.
